is beyond doubt; but all our religions are cles spring of men. A man can swear to nothing tha in his last moments; yet undoubtedly my bel: shall die without a confessor. Assuredly I am fax an atheist; yet I cannot believe all that is tau| of reason, without being dishonest and a hypoc the Empire, and particularly after the niai Maria Louisa, the greatest efforts were made 1 me to go to Notre Dame in full state for c after the manner of our kings; I refused flatb was not strong enough for it to do me any go< was too great to commit a sacrilege in cold know whence I come, what I am, whither I go me, and yet there it is! I am the clock that exis not know itself. I can appear before God's trit await his judgment without fear. I worked o glory, the power, the splendour of France; tb faculties, my efforts, my time were given. Tha be a crime; to me it appeared a virtue!

10th. Fox came to France immediately treaty of Amiens. He was working at a hist Stuarts, and asked my permission to search in matic archives. I ordered that he should be g; to everything. I received him frequently; I fc